Re: United States v. Michael Lamar
17 Cr. 610 (LGS)

Dear Judge Schofield:

Enclosed please find two additional sentencing letters on behalf of Michael Lamar, one from his mother, Carolyn Hemphill, and another from his child's mother, Twana Shaw. Both of them are referenced in the Pre-Sentence Report and expressed positive sentiments about Michael.

We find most poignant and potentially relevant to sentencing the letter from Ms. Hemphill, who indicates her extremely poor physical condition and disability, and her desire to have Michael live at home with her. We can therefore definitively state that, if and when released, Michael will have a home and a stable residence. These are the building blocks for the Court to create an order for Michael's supervision during a term of Supervised Release.

Very truly yours,

Bennett M. Epstein
